

GERMANY'S REPLY PUZZLES READY TO EVACUATE INVADIED TERRITORY

PRESIDENT RECIVES MOMENTOUS NOTE IN GOTHAM THEATRE

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Seated tonight in a box at the Metropolitan Opera House, President Wilson received from The Associated Press the unofficial text of the most momentous diplomatic note in the history of the world. Thru Secretary Tumulty he announced that he would have no comment to make.

Publication of the German reply to the president's inquiries as to its willingness to accept all the terms he previously had enunciated and to evacuate all occupied territory came as a complete surprise. The way in which the wireless despatch of such tremendous purport sent out from the German station at Nauenen was made public shattered all diplomatic precedents.

The text reached New York only a short time before Mr. Wilson and his party left the Waldorf Astoria to attend the concert at the Metropolitan for the benefit of blinded Italian soldiers.

The natural presumption was that it previously had been communicated by precaution however, The Associated Press sent over its special wire to the opera house an inquiry to Secretary Tumulty as to whether Mr. Wilson had been informed of the German reply.

Mr. Tumulty showed plainly his amazement and replied that Mr. Wilson had not sent the note and the secretary requested that the text be telegraphed to him at once. He announced however, that the president would not indicate in the slightest degree what his answer would be until he had opportunity to study the official text.

The reply was sent immediately to the president in his seat and was read with most intense interest. Soon thereafter Secretary Tumulty disappeared and it was assumed he was in telephone communication with Secretary of State Lansing at Washington.

None realized, except those in the presidential party, that they were witnessing one of the most amazing diplomatic dramas ever enacted.

If the president was stirred by the momentous turn in the international situation there was no surface indication of it so far as could be noted.

After the Italian grenadier band had finished playing, the president turned to the Italian ambassador and they engaged in earnest conversation for perhaps five minutes. The president was seen to gesticulate repeatedly as he talked. This was the first serious touch to the president's attitude after the news regarding Germany's note had been conveyed to him.

When Secretary Tumulty called Washington he was informed that the official text of the note had not been received neither at the white house nor at the state department. The unofficial text had been received however.

FOREST FIRES SWEEPING THRU NORTHERN CITIES

BULLETIN.

DULUTH, Minn., Oct. 12.—Cloquet was partly wiped out by the forest fires late today and 9,000 refugees are in Duluth and Superior saved from Cloquet. Arnold, Hermantown and several other smaller towns near Duluth were also wiped out. Hundreds are reported dead.

DULUTH, Minn., Oct. 12.—Duluth and Superior are tonight the hub of the worst chain of forest fires in the history of northern Wisconsin and Minnesota. Conflagrations, fanned to fury by storm, have destroyed hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property in the area between Two Harbors, north of here, Moose Lake, Brainerd, Flinaysoa and Ashland.

Blazing brands have fallen in Duluth and Superior. Buildings in the outskirts of these cities have caught fire. The fire departments and home guard forces have responded continuously to calls for help since this morning. There have been reports of casualties. None had been confirmed but it is known that a dozen or more persons have been injured. Hundreds of persons are known to be homeless.

Four men were injured by an explosion at the DuPont Powder Plant at Wilpen. Small buildings caught fire but the blaze according to the latest account had not spread to the important buildings. One had fire is burning between here and Two Harbors. Another fierce conflagration rages, seemingly along an arc shaped area from Ashland, Wis. to Spooner, Wis. Forests are ablaze from Cloquet Minn., south to Flinayson, Brainerd and Brainerd are both close to equally dangerous fires.

Word was received here tonight that Adjutant General W. H. Howlow would reach the Duluth district tomorrow to direct the fire fighting forces.

COMPLIANCE OF DEMAND DOES NOT MEAN IMMEDIATE CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Germany's reply to President Wilson's inquiry intercepted as it was being sent by the great wireless towers at Nauenen and forwarded here tonight in an official despatch from France declares Germany is ready to accept President Wilson's peace terms, evacuate the invaded territory as a pre-requisite to an armistice and that the bid for peace represents the German people as well as the government.

Altho on its face the text of the German note seems to be a complete acceptance of President Wilson's terms the people of the United States and the allied countries should be cautioned against accepting it as such a compliance of the president's demands as will mean immediate cessation of hostilities.

Officials Make No Comment

As President Wilson was in New York tonight, and reserved comment on the note, his views cannot be stated now and none of his official family here in Washington cared to speak for him.

Without any attempt to discount what appeared to be, at a casual reading, an acceptance of the terms the president has laid down officials here were very positive as not accepting the German note as a document which means the end of the war. It needs to be examined and fully considered before the views of the American government can be stated.

Should President Wilson finally decide that there is enough sincerity in Germany's proposition to transmit it to the allies, as the German chancellor requested, it should be borne in mind that Great Britain, France and the other entente nations must be taken into consideration for decision then as to whether an armistice should be granted or whether discussions should be undertaken to carry out the details of the application of President Wilson's peace terms.

The greatest danger facing the people of the United States officials said tonight, was that they might hastily consider Germany's proposition as the unconditional surrender which the co-belligerents demand and relax their efforts to continue the victories at arms and carry over the Fourth Liberty Loan. On every side in official quarters it was stated that this view of the situation could not be placed before the public too strongly.

Who is German Government?

Conceding that possibly the proposal for an armistice might be accepted and that the German acceptance of President Wilson's peace terms might be satisfactory, the question in the opinion of officials and diplomats here would center in "who is the present German government?"

If the German government is the government of the Hohenzollerns there seems no doubt here that the German reply will be unacceptable.

It is very probable that the text of the official communication may differ in some respects as to verbiage from the unofficial copy given out tonight but it is regarded as highly improbable that it will show any substantial differences.

At the first reading, the text would seem to answer in a manner which might lead peace all the questions President Wilson asked of Chancellor Maximilian in his inquiry which was sent as an answer to the German peace note received here last Monday.

In this inquiry the president declared he would not propose an armistice while troops of the central powers remained on invaded soil; he asked whether Prince Maximilian accepted the terms of peace as laid down or merely wanted to discuss them "as a basis of negotiations" and finally he asked whether the chancellor merely represented the militarists who have been conducting the war.

Door To Peace Not Closed

These inquiries the German government seems to answer in a manner which at least has not closed the door to peace. The evacuation of invaded territory pending declaration of an armistice the answer accepts; it says the terms of peace are accepted and makes no further mention of a "basis for negotiations" and declared the chancellor was speaking for the German government as recently reconstructed and the German people as well.

The one point which appeared to loom up as the text of the unofficial copy as read is whether Chancellor Maximilian and Foreign Secretary Rolf can in reality represent the German people as the reply declares they do. President Wilson's estimate, and the estimate of the statement of the co-belligerents on the safety of dealing with the heads of the German government have often been repeated. They have been denounced as unworthy of trust and not to be expected to keep promises. Whether President Wilson and the entente allies regard the government now headed by Maximilian and which has Solf for its secretary for foreign affairs one which can speak under any circumstances for the German people and bind them to the peace terms which the allies will impose remains to be seen. There was no official expression on that point in Washington tonight in President Wilson's absence. Probably no one in the United States can give the answer.

What Has Become of the Kaiser.

Reading thru the phrases of the unofficial text every one here immediately struck with the question of what must have happened in Germany recently to make such an

AMERICA DEMANDS AN UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER-M'ADOO

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—The text of Germany's reply to President Wilson's inquiries was communicated by The Associated Press tonight to William G. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury just before he delivered a Liberty Loan address at a crowded mass meeting. Mr. McAdoo told the audience the text of the reply and added:

"What this government demands, based on President Wilson's messages and speeches, is unconditional surrender, and if this reply is authentic it means just that."

Before telling the audience about the German note Mr. McAdoo said of the first German note a week ago:

"Germany didn't send its note to anyone except the United States. Why? Because the president of the United States has formulated the principles of a permanent peace."

"Germany knows that when she accepts the president's conditions—I am not talking terms, but conditions, principles—when she is off the soil of every invaded land, it means unconditional surrender."

"What is unconditional surrender? It is when the fellow you are fighting says, 'I give in and take what you say I ought to take.'"

"The Kaiser might as well surrender now. He isn't deluded now. He did think at one time that America wouldn't get into the war, but he knows better now."

At this point the secretary alluded to the Associated Press despatch briefly outlining the German terms. Then after stating that he hoped the message would prove authentic, he added:

"I'll not discuss terms now. Even if it is true that the Kaiser has surrendered, that doesn't make it the less important that this loan be subscribed. It has to be, because we spent most of the money before we asked for it."

"It is the highest patriotism, the highest act of love and honor, for us to bring back in triumph those men who made peace possible."

"Do you realize that two million boys—my son, your son—are over in France. When peace comes don't we want our boys back just as quickly as we can get them. It will cost just as much to get them back as it took to send them over there."

"Peace or no peace, the fourth liberty loan goes over."

"If the Kaiser says: 'I am willing to evacuate, and to accept your conditions,' that is surrender, or I don't know what is. The point I am making in this. America has stood for peace on the foundations of justice and democracy, eliminating the festering sores which have caused all the wars in Europe and we never will accept peace until we get it as America wants it."

"In a short time we shall have unconditional surrender if we have not got it now."

WAR SUMMARY

News of Activities on Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

Germany declares itself ready to comply with the propositions of the President of the United States with respect to the evacuation of occupied territories and in this associates itself with Austria.

Dr. W. S. Solf, the newly appointed foreign secretary in reply to President Wilson's recent note, accepts the terms laid down by President Wilson in his recent addresses "on the foundation of a permanent peace of justice," future discussions the reply asserts would be for the purpose of agreeing upon the application of these terms.

The present German government it is further announced assumes the responsibility for this step towards peace and has the support of the great majority of the reichstag. The imperial chancellor, declares the note speaks in the name of the German government and of the German people.

The president of the United States it is suggested, may occasion a meeting of a mixed commission to make arrangements for the evacuation.

Anglo-American forces on the southern side of the great wedge that has been thrust into the enemy lines southeast of Valenciennes are halting momentarily before an extemporized German defense line running from Valenciennes to the Oise. Both north and south of this area, however, the Germans are either retreating or continuing to fall back under the continuous pressure that Marshal Foch is applying.

Douat, the most important of the northern French cities within the immediate scope of the allied thrust with the exception of the fallen Cambrai and the threatened Lille seems about to pass into British hands.

Lille itself the greatest of the French manufacturing center is none too secure a position. The wedge below Douat is threatening the whole line running north past Lille into Flanders and the Germans are palpably worried, also, over the prospect of General Pinner's Second British army and King Albert's Belgian forces on their right flank above Lille springing into renewed activity.

On the south General Petain's armies and the Americans under General Pershing have struck renewed heavy blows against the German left in the great pocket formed by the German positions from Verdun around the Laon curve to the sea.

The Chemin des Dames to longer stands as a bulwark for Laon in the Aisne region and to the east in the Champagne the French by a swift advance of from three to four miles in a day, have entered Vouziers and carried their line so far north that the communications between the German northern armies and those east of the Champagne bid fair to be cut.

On the extreme allied right in the active battle area the American first army is keeping up its hammering tactics and daily gaining more of the most valuable ground remaining to the Germans in Northern France—that protecting their communicating lines from the home soil thru the Metz and Montmedey regions.

But the Germans altho they are in general on the retreat, by no means are yet in a state of broken

Official Text of German Reply

The text of the note follows:
"In reply to the questions of the president of the United States of America the German government hereby declares:
"The German government has accepted the terms laid down by President Wilson in his address of January the eighth and in his subsequent addresses on the foundation of a permanent peace of justice. Consequently its object in entering into discussions would be only to agree upon practical details of the application of these terms. The German government believes that the governments of the powers associated with the government of the United States also take the position taken by President Wilson in his address. The German government in accordance with the Austro-Hungarian government for the purpose of bringing about an armistice, declares itself ready to comply with the proposition of the president in regard to evacuation.

"The German government suggests that the president may occasion the meeting of a mixed commission for making the necessary arrangements concerning the evacuation. The present German government, which has undertaken the responsibility for this step towards peace, has been formed by conferences and in agreement with the great majority of the reichstag. The chancellor, supported in all of his actions by the will of this majority, speaks in the name of the German government and of the German people.

With so many rules governing personal conduct in effect today, it will be a fine time for looking backward and for some introspection too. People usually are too busy for this sort of thing and the new health epidemic rules and the gasless Sunday regulations may result in a lot of profitable self-study.

The county election is now nearly four weeks away and not a great deal is heard about it, although candidates are active in their campaign work. Republicans have a list of nominees this year of whom the party can well be proud. The ticket as a whole is one which carries appeal to the voters, for the candidates are high class and qualified for the various positions to which they are seeking election.

DO YOU LIBERTY LOAN DUTY.

The real serious part of the Liberty Loan campaign will be under way this week. The accounts have been balanced up and the figures show just the amount of subscriptions made in each school district. The subscriptions must come up to the allotments and the committees will get busy at once and call on those persons who have not subscribed, to meet conditions and help make up the sum total allotted to Morgan county and which must be met. The government asks that their subscription be made and if the "request" is not met in the proper spirit—well, you know what the government will do.

WALKING WILL BE POPULAR

Today walking excursions into the country promise to be very popular. No church or Sunday school services are to be held. Those who are in the habit of spending social hours about the pool rooms will find them closed. The government anti-gasoline request is still in effect and so there is every promise of this being the most peaceful—or possibly the most restless—Sunday that the people have ever experienced. However, the same thing may be said of the quarantine that has been said about the gasoline order—that it is all for the best and that if a little individual inconvenience will aid in a good cause, the people, generally speaking, are very willing indeed to carry out the order.

Rumors continue to come from the front that the Kaiser is about to abdicate. Most people give very little credence to the rumors, however, they all agree that with the Kaiser out of the way, the settlement would be much easier. The crown prince could also be spared.

The German peace note sets forth a willingness to evacuate all territory now held by Germany, as stipulated by President Wilson. Reading the war reports from the front indicates that the evacuation is already taking place just as rapidly as German troops can move under the continued and sharp prodigings by the British, French and American forces. The speed with which the Germans have been pushed back during the past two weeks amounts almost to a rout. Probably German newspapers refer to the movement as a "masterly retreat."

THE GERMAN REPLY.

Germany has sent note indicating a willingness to accept President Wilson's peace terms. But Washington sends out a warning that the people must not be confused and imagine that the war is over. The note is couched in language capable of several different constructions and just what Germany means by "application" of principles laid down by President Wilson remains to be seen.

There are various phrases throughout the somewhat brief note that will require study of experienced diplomats and the answer that Washington will give will no doubt be the composite opinion of President Wilson and his closest advisers after a period of most careful consideration. The language that America best understands is "unconditional surrender" and until that comes peace notes will be looked upon with suspicion. President Wilson's note was addressed to Prince Maximilian and the reply came from the German foreign secretary. This fact may or may not be significant.

"BEST IN THE LIFE OF AMERICAN SOLDIERS."

"These seven organizations," says Dr. John R. Mott, director general of the United War Work Campaign staged for Nov. 11-18, represent everything that is best in the life of the American soldier. They represent the church, the school, the theatre, the library, and the athletic field. Together they follow the boys and the troop trains, through the cantonments, into the transports and every step of the way, even to the front line trenches. There is not a home in the country flying a service flag that has not received a letter on the stationery of at least one of the organizations. And every letter written on Red Triangles, or K. of C. or Salvation Army, or Jewish Welfare Board paper, means that the boy when he wrote was being kept warm and cheerful and happy through the gifts of the people back home.

The organizations mentioned with the Y. W. C. A., the War Camp Community Service and the American Library Association, will share the financial benefits of the big drive.

THE HIGH COST OF LIVING.

The proposed state-wide system of hard roads will help reduce the high cost of living. It will provide for employment of labor after the war. It will make farming more profitable. It will extend and increase commerce. It will help take the loneliness out of country life. It will give us better schools and churches. It will make Illinois a better home for everyone.

The five million people of Illinois are offered the opportunity of getting a 4800 mile state-wide system of hard roads at the sole expense of the owners of motor vehicles. We are tendered a six-million dollar road improvement within five years after the close of the war without a penny of taxation except the auto licenses.

Give the motor vehicles the chance to pay for this system by voting YES on the Little Road Improvement Ballot next month. If you forget to vote, you will be counted as voting against the improvement.

THE PEOPLE ONLY MAKE QUARANTINE EFFECTIVE.

There will be general approval of the action of local health authorities taken yesterday in ordering that there will be no public gatherings of people of Jacksonville until further notice, as a health measure. This means that school sessions will not be held and that all church services, social gatherings and meetings of literary societies and leagues are abandoned until further notice. The order applies also to picture theatres and pool rooms. While the situation here is not yet acute, the last two days have shown an increasing number of cases of influenza and any step that can be taken to prevent the spread of the disease is certainly wise. Reports show conclusively that the epidemic is touching nearly all parts of the U. S. and is widespread in this country, after having swept thru all Europe.

It is hardly to be hoped that Jacksonville can entirely escape and if the steps taken by the health authorities bring this to pass the action is certainly well worth while. Even if many cases now occur the officials have the satisfaction of having done all that they could to prevent unfortunate conditions.

Just as laws represent the wishes and spirit of the people, so this health order will be of value as the people join in its enforcement and approval of the order. Children should be kept at home and not allowed to congregate, and fathers and mothers share joint responsibility with health officials in the enforcement of quarantine regulations.

RED CROSS MAN FINDS CARTOON FROM HOME.

This is the little story of how Alaska and France were linked up together in a little wayside inn of France.

John Erle Davis of U. S. Base Hospital, No. 11, walked far into the country from the city of Nantes, and stopped at a little wayside estaminet, or wine shop. From the floor he picked up a trampled newspaper printed in English, and in it he found a cartoon signed "Kettner." The paper was the "Sunday Times" printed in Anchorage, Alaska.

Now before he put on uniform Mr. Davis was on the staff of the Central Division Publicity department, and for four years before that he had been an associate editor of the Western Newspaper Union. And M. G. Kettner is one of the W. N. U. artists and a good friend of Davis. Red Cross members will remember Mr. Kettner as the artist who drew one of the most telling Red Cross cartoons for last winter's membership drive.

"If made me feel mighty close to the Red Cross office, to find one of Kettner's cartoons lying around on the floor," wrote Mr. Davis. "And to think that it had been printed away up in Alaska, just as far from home in the other direction, and that I should find it over here on this side of the Atlantic, in a little out-of-the-way place like this." And to prove that the story was not "made up out of his head," he enclosed part of the page torn from the paper, which is now one of Mr. Kettner's prized war relics.

PAYING YOUR INDEMNITY.

Do you realize how big an undertaking this Fourth Liberty Loan is? It is so gigantic that Big Business alone cannot swing it, that the 7,000,000 farmers of American agriculture cannot carry it alone, that the wage-earner and the shop-keepers and the merchants could not meet it. It will have to be met by us all and we will have to deny ourselves of things to which we have become accustomed in order to meet it.

But it will be easier to pay, far easier, than a Prussian indemnity. It will fall heavily on the modest incomes, on the people who are making $1,000 and $2,000 and $3,000 a year. As an indication of what it will mean if those with modest incomes of $3,000 and more were to give to the loan every cent they receive through three months and if the corporations were in addition to invest in it the surplus and amortization funds up to a billion dollars, the loan would still fall short by about a billion dollars.

Something like one half of the whole loan must come from actual sacrifices on the part of those who are not making big incomes. If the subscription was $50 last time it will need to be doubled this time. If it was $500 last time then the subscription slip should be signed for $1,000 if it is humanly possible for the signer to pay out even at the cost of actual sacrifices.

When the Huns came into Belgium, when they took Serbia, when they enslaved Poland and conquered Rumania, they levied an indemnity on these countries, province by province and city by city. The methods of collection were backed by death and imprisonment. It is easier to meet a Liberty Loan payment than it would be to meet the demands of the Prussian backed by his firing squads and his prisons.

STAND BY THE WAR.

Chairman Will H. Hays, of the National Republican Committee, in a patriotic and editorial in the National Republican, calls on all citizens to stand by the war, and spend the last drop of blood and treasure for this purpose, if need be.

The Republican party says to the country—STAND BY THE WAR.

"In this declaration of purpose is included the statement which the Democratic party seems to have adopted as a slogan—'Stand by the President.'"

"Stand by the President in support of all war measures is a duty and privilege which the Republicans have assumed as a matter of course, as to all that the great office implies, and in the performance of which duty the Republican party has functioned more fully and efficiently than the Democratic party, and in which course we shall persist without waver or shadow of turning."

The Republican party says—STAND BY THE WAR.

"This includes more. It includes stand by every public official, high or low, measured by the thoroughness with which that official stands by the war; it includes, stand by the government; stand by this country; stand by our Allies, every one; stand against our enemies in this war, every one; stand by our soldiers in France and the soldiers of our allies; stand by every effort for WAR SAVING and WAR GIVING in this country; stand for the Fourth Liberty Loan and every other war effort; stand for the cause for which we fight; stand by the 'irreducible minimum' of peace terms so splendidly enunciated by Senator Lodge; stand by the war aims of this country to vindicate American rights, interests and honor and to forever end Prussianism in the world and the oppression which it typifies, and to make certain forever the inability of militarism, Prussian or otherwise, to disturb again the peace of the world; stand 'irrevocably for a peace with victory only and not for a peace based on compromise of principles which would make our sacrifice a sacrifice to be made again by our grandchildren.'"

"All this we say—STAND BY THE WAR—and for this purpose we dedicate the last of our blood and of our treasure."

MR. AUTO OWNER.

Do you want a state-wide system of 4800 miles of durable hard surfaced roads extending into every county and touching almost every town of over 2,000 within five years after the close of the war?

OR, do you prefer to wait twenty-five years or more for a crazy-quilt patchwork of all kinds of roads built by the 102 counties a little at a time?

You will pay your license fees anyhow. Why not get action NOW? GET BUSY. Election is near and many voters do not understand that this Sixty Million Dollars system of roads is to be paid for entirely by auto license fees without a penny of taxation on any other property. The Little Road Improvement Ballot must receive a majority of all votes cast by men at the coming election of the State-wide system is lost. If a ballot is marked it counts against the improvement.

VOTE YES, and ask your neighbors and friends to VOTE YES. There is no good reason why any other voter should vote against the improvement, but there is danger that men will forget to vote and thereby be counted as voting "no."

Rippling Rhymes

Autumn Chill.

The chilly wind begins to sing, it's been on ice I know; the overcoat I soaked last spring would be a blessing now. But it will have to stay in pawn; the cost of living's high, and all by bank account is gone, there's not a kopeck left. The wailing winds of which you've heard blow cold across the sea; gone southward is the ducky-bird that used to sing to me; the gentle flowers are in the hole, or their dead stalks are weep, and in the elm tree's hollow hole, the aardvark lies asleep. The night wind has a dismal note, a sort of piercing whine; and I bewail the overcoat my uncle has in brine. The clouds are hanging low today, there is a threat of rain; the trees are gaunt and bare and gray, and in the blast complain. The leaves are flying everywhere, they soar and swoop like bats; and all the chill October air seems full of dust and bats. As tho it had a human throat, that cold wind pipes its tunes; alas, the good old overcoat I soaked the tenth of June! Oh, other men may face the storm, the biting arctic breeze, and keep their slats and innards warm, but I must shake and freeze. In my ragged coat has no meat, all winter I must stay, and wish I had the overcoat I soaked one vernal day.

Owing to high priced corn farmers are on the lookout for a substitute that will produce the fat hog without as much money invested as when corn is fed.

A number of farmers among them being John Leach, Harry Trotter, Frank Hembrough, Lewis Mieler, W. L. Leach, Henry Smith, Bert Way, Harry E. Kitter, Tom Allen, Paul Brecken, Jeffrey Cleary, Denis Whalen, Mayor Deatherage of Waverly, John Mitterdorf, Walter Carter, G. Tendick have experimented with a feed called Suerene Hog Meal, and are reporting splendid success with it. A Journal representative having recently heard some farmers discussing the question, obtained some figures Mr. Tendick kept, which will be interesting to any one feeding hogs.

Mr. Tendick said he had been feeding fifty six pigs averaging 75 pounds by actual weight when he put them entirely on suerene hog meal, feeding them nothing else, and that in a fourteen day test the pigs were weighed showing a gain of 1,060 pounds. This is an unusual gain in a fourteen day test of this weight pigs and Mr. Tendick is naturally well pleased.

It required to produce this 1,060 pounds gain, forty four bags of suerene hog meal for which he paid $2.25 per sack, a total cost of $43. To have fed the same amount of corn, seventy-nine bushels and estimating the corn at $1.60 per bushel, the price that Mr. Tendick could have sold his corn for when beginning his suerene hog meal experiment, the corn would have cost $126.40, but would have produced not more than forty-two pounds per day to the herd, which is food for this weight pigs, and would have produced 538 pounds gain as against 1,060 pounds suerene hog meal gain.

Counting pigs at $10 per hundred, a conservative estimate at the present high values, would on the corn fed pigs produce $111.72 for the pounds gained. It is plain to be seen where this would lead one.

The 1,060 pounds gained on the suerene hog meal at 19 cents per pound for the pounds gained would be $201.40. W. D. Cody who handles this suerene hog meal pays 5 cents for each sack returned which made $2.20 for the sacks.

This being added to the difference between $201.40 meal amount on the suerene hog meal feeding and the amount gained on the corn feeding and the amount gained — feeding $142 leaves Mr. Tendick a gain of $60.60, and shows had he fed the corn instead, he would have had a loss of $146.80.

Mr. Tendick's experiment showing these — by actual weight and tests of suerene hog meal feeding over the corn feeding, will, no doubt, influence others to investigate this manner of feeding.

TWO WAVERLY BOYS DIE FROM INFLUENZA

Kennedy Wright and Loren Weller Died at Army Camps—Funeral Arrangements not Yet Made.

Waverly, Oct. 12.—Mrs. Ella Wright received a telegram this afternoon stating that her son, Kennedy Wright, had died at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon at the cantonment at Austin, Tex. The message did not give any particulars as to the cause of the young soldier's death but it is supposed that it was the result of an attack of the Spanish influenza.

Deceased was twenty two years of age and had resided all his life in Waverly except the last three years, during which he had resided in McGee, Ark. He left in August for the training camp at Austin, Texas. He is survived by his wife, his mother, Mrs. Ella Wright, and one sister, Mrs. Clifford Harris, both of Waverly. He also leaves three brothers, Bert of McGee, Ark., Roy of Oklahoma and Paul of Kansas.

No arrangements for the funeral can be made until receipt of information as to when the remains will arrive in Waverly.

Died at Ft. Riley.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Weller received a telegram Saturday announcing the death of their son, Loren Weller, at Ft. Riley, Kansas. The young man who was twenty nine years of age, was stricken with Spanish influenza and it was this disease which caused his death. He had resided but one year in Waverly and had for some time been a resident of Logan county, Kans. In August of this year he was married to Miss Alta Mathena, just before his departure for Fort Riley. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Weller, long time residents of Waverly; four brothers, James Weller, Waverly; Fletcher Weller, Harry Weller and Leonard Weller and one sister, Mrs. Charles Baker, all of Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Weller left Waverly this morning for Fort Riley, in response to a telegram stating that their son was ill, and the message announcing his death arrived later in the day. No arrangements for the funeral have yet been announced.

The funeral of Miss Emma Harris will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the late residence, conducted by Rev. F. E. Smith of the First Methodist church. Burial will be at Vancil Temple cemetery.

MATHIS, KAMM & SHIBE SAY

Perhaps this is the reason that shoes occasionally wear out. The average step is 26 inches; this means 2437 steps to the mile or 12,185 in a five mile day. A person weighing 160 pounds in a day has pounded into his shoes almost 975 tons of meat, bone, and trouble. Men buy three pairs of shoes a year. It is said that a steel hammer coming down at that rate for four months would have to be renewed daily and at the expiration of that time would have to be fished out of the deepest hole in the earth. Figure it yourself.

CONSTRUCTION WORK TO BEGIN.

Last evening Major McDougall received a letter from Morrison, Walker and Crunelle stating that they were ready to begin work on the foundation of the soldiers' monument and asking that the flower bed in the middle of central park be removed. They also stated that Simeon Fernandes and Sons had the contract for the foundation. They wanted to begin work Monday morning if things could be so arranged.

MEREDOSIA BOY DIES AT CAMP TAYLOR

Lee Pond Passes Away Following an Attack of Pneumonia—Funeral Will be Held in Meredosia.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pond of Meredosia received word yesterday morning of the death of their son Lee Pond at Camp Taylor. On Friday the parents received word of the serious illness of their son.

Mr. Pond accompanied by T. B. McAllister, left for Camp Taylor at three o'clock Saturday morning and at six o'clock news came of his death. Mr. Pond could not be reached at that time so he will evidently continue his journey to Camp Taylor and accompany the remains back.

News first came of the boy's illness of influenza but later developed into pneumonia which caused his death. The deceased was twenty seven years of age and had always made Meredosia his home, living on a farm with his parents. He left with the Morgan county contingent the latter part of August.

He is survived by his parents and four sisters and two brothers. No arrangements for the funeral have yet been made.

answer possible. One of the closing phases was, declares that the present German government has been formed by conferences in agreement with the great majority of the reichstag and that the chancellor "speaks in the name of the German government and of the German people" was regarded as being susceptible to almost unlimited speculation. What has become of the kaiser was the question asked on every hand as that phrase was read. The world knows very little of what has been going on in Germany during the last few months when armies steadily beaten at the front things at home have been going from bad to worse. It was regarded as not without the realm of possibilities that the great power of the kaiser which brought on the war has been taken from him.

At first there was some disposition to regard the text of the note as received here as possibly unauthentic. The manner of its publication altho an official accident, was so irregular, that many thought of some sort of a bit of German "finesse" in diplomacy.

There has been an opinion in some quarters that the German peace offer at this time had for one of its objects the discouragement of Americans in the Fourth Liberty loan. Military men have expressed the view that it was framed for its possible effect on the morale of the American and entente troops in the field and the workers at home being pressed to do their utmost for the prosecution of the war. The first thought tonight was that the despatch received here was something of a move of that sort. But when it was established beyond doubt that it had been picked up from the great German wireless station at Nauen and has been made public, even tho by accident by the important diplomatic mission which is well known as having access at all times to all the important foreign developments, all these doubts disappeared and its genuineness was readily accepted.

EASILY PREPARED DISHES TO SERVE MANY.

(U. S. Food Administration.) The cafeteria in the United States Food Administration building at Washington serves about 700 lunches every day. Here are some of the dishes used. Each of these recipes will serve 100 persons. They should be useful to those who have to plan church suppers or luncheons for women's organizations.

Scald the milk. Beat the sirup, eggs, and salt together. Add to the above mixture 1 quart of the scalded milk. Add the mixture to the remainder of the scalded milk. Add the vanilla. Pour the custard into custard cups. Place the filled custard cups in pans. Pour hot water into the pan until the custard cup is surrounded to one-fourth of its depth by water. Bake in a moderately hot oven until the custard is firm or from 15 to 25 minutes. When a silver knife comes out clean, the custard is done.

resistance. This is shown by the desperate fight they are giving the Americans from the Argonne to the Meuse, by the stand they appear to be about to make before Field Marshal Haig's armies south of Valenciennes and by the persistence with which they are clinging to their positions around Loos, altho doubtless aware of the peril to which they are exposing their large forces in this area by so doing.

Douai and perhaps Lille they seem to have prepared themselves to give up. But they are still holding on to most of Belgium as well as to the Laon pocket and are throwing everything they can possibly mass into the effort to keep their vital left flank north of the Verdun areas protected.

Y. M. C. A. WORK FOR AMERICAN PRISONERS OF WAR.

The American soldier unlucky enough to be taken prisoner and sent to a Bache camp is by no means in such sad case as he might be. The Y. M. C. A., that faithful friend of the U. S. fighting man, can't do as much for a doughboy after the Hunns have him in charge as before they got him, but they do manage to soften his sorrows in no slight degree.

Up to the time when America entered the war the Yankee Y. M. C. A. had a big organization looking after Allied prisoners in Germany. When it became necessary for Americans to leave the land of the rose-step and the Kaiser "Y" affairs were placed in the hands of neutrals mainly Swiss and Scandinavian. American funds still keep these men at work, with the International Committee, which maintains a central office in Berne, Switzerland, with officers in Berlin, Vienna, Paris, Petrograd, Rome and Sofia to oversee things. The War Prisoners' Aid Department deals directly with the interned men.

Its work consists, mainly, in furnishing the prisoners with books and means of recreation. Musical instruments, paraphernalia for indoor and outdoor games, theatrical material and, in some cases, food and clothing are provided. A car load of baseballs, bats, tennis rackets, footballs, etc., recently was sent thru Switzerland to American prisoners in German camps. Part of these had been enacted as a means of "somewhat Americanizing our position," by the men.

In the way of reading matter, books of almost every kind are needed but works of a technical nature are in great demand. Many a fine American boy now interned in a German prison camp is getting the start of an improved career when he returns to the United States. Scores of such fine lads are spending most of their time in the study of electricity, chemistry, engineering, surveying, etc. The war over, they will be ready to put the new knowledge to practical use.

The work of the War Prisoners' Aid Department has been extended to the United States soldiers interned in all parts of the Central Powers as well as in Germany proper, and also to the Polish prisoners held in France. In one camp the Poles publish a well printed and well edited newspaper, not only amusing to its editors and readers but of none too easy at best.

PRISONERS OF WAR.
Washington, Oct. 12.—The war department today made public the names of 74 American soldiers held as prisoners of war at various camps in Germany. The list includes:
At Camp Rastatt:
Frank A. Mitchell, Rolfe, Ia.
Leo Charles Boland, Elkader, Ia.

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS AT COMING ELECTION

(By Thomas Worthington)

At the Woman's club luncheon planned for Saturday Mr. Thomas Worthington had been invited to discuss the proposal for a constitutional convention, the $50,000,000 good roads bond issue and the proposed law for bringing all the banks under state supervision. As the luncheon was postponed on account of local health conditions it was the suggestion of the president of the Woman's club that Mr. Worthington's excellent paper be presented thru the press. It is given herewith:

At the general election to be held November 5th, three propositions of vast public interest are to be submitted to the voters for adoption or rejection, namely:—The proposition to call a convention to revise the Constitution of the State; the proposition to authorize the State authorities to issue bonds to the amount of sixty million dollars for the construction of a system of hard roads throughout the State; and that intended to bring all banks in the State under the supervision of State laws after January 1st 1921.

Upon all these propositions male voters only can vote, for the reason that they all involve questions affecting or affected by the Constitution of the State. However, women are quite as much interested in them as men, and even more interested in the first proposition, as it necessarily involves the question of suffrage.

Personally, I am in favor of all three propositions, and the same is true of all well informed lawyers with whom I have discussed them; but I have been asked to speak here only upon the first two, namely, the Constitutional Convention and the bond issue. The subjects are of such transcending interest that I could spend hours in talking about them; but as you have another speaker for this afternoon, who will deal with a highly interesting and even dramatic subject I must limit myself to minutes, rather than hours, and in order to present something at all worth while in the short time at my disposal, I have thought best to reduce my remarks to writing.

First, the proposed Constitutional Convention. As most of you know, there are two methods provided by the present Constitution by which it may be amended, first, by submitting a single amendment for adoption or rejection by the people at a general election, and second, by the method of a Constitutional Convention. The first method has been tried for nearly fifty years, and has been found entirely inadequate for various reasons. In the first place, before an amendment can be submitted it requires the affirmative votes of two-thirds of the members of both Houses of the Legislature. This is very difficult to obtain, especially when conflicting interests desire to submit an amendment at the same time. Secondly, but one amendment can be submitted at a time. Twice attempts have been made to amend the amending clause the first by submitting two propositions, and the second by submitting three at the same time. Both of these very meritorious measures were defeated on account of the apathy of the general public, which seems never to be interested in general propositions. In a recent address by Governor Lowden to which I listened, he said that he had for a number of years favored the first plan of amendment; but that he is now thoroughly convinced that a Constitutional Convention is necessary.

In order that a Convention may be called, it must receive the affirmative votes of a majority of all those voting at an election for members of the General Assembly, and not merely a majority of the votes cast in favor of or against the proposition. Hence, apathy and ignorance are just as dangerous foes to all of these measures as intelligent opposition. If the proposition carries, the next step will be for the Legislature which convenes next year to determine the time and place for the assembling of a Constitutional Convention and the election of delegates. This date will doubtless be some time in the year 1919 or 1920. The Convention will consist of two delegates from each Senatorial District in the State, or 162 in all. The people must be trusted to select men of the highest standing and ability, well versed in the Constitutional history and the needs of the State. When the Convention has completed its work, it will provide a time when it shall be submitted to the voters of the State for adoption or rejection, not less than two, nor more than six months after its adjournment. One of the principal arguments against calling a Constitutional Convention is that it will be radical and will propose many sweeping changes in our form of government. I do not believe this objection well founded, for the general opinion of those versed upon the subject is that at least 90 per cent of the provisions of our present Constitution will remain in force. They relate to all of the affairs of Civil Government, which cannot be very radically changed without revolution, and the people of this State are not in a revolutionary mood. They believe in progress, but evolution, and not thru destruction, such as prevails in Russia today.

You will doubtless expect me to state some of the reasons for calling a Constitutional Convention. These reasons are both general and specific. Among the general reasons, I would note, first, that the State has had but three Constitutions, that of 1818, that of 1848 and that of 1870, which is now in force. The latter has been in force, or will be before it can be changed, practically as long as the other two combined. The conditions of population, property, etc., have radically changed since 1870. At that time only about 19 per cent of the people of the State lived in cities; now 64 per cent live in cities. Then the State had a population of about two and a half millions, and now it has a population of nearly six and a half millions. Cook county then had a population of 350,000, while today it numbers over two and a half millions. There has been a vast development in means of transportation and in wealth, and especially in the forms of wealth. A Constitution which was suited to conditions existing in 1870 is not suited to conditions now existing. I will mention some details a little farther on in my remarks.

Among these general reasons might be mentioned the fact that both of the great political parties have declared in their party platforms in favor of a Constitutional Convention; that a large majority in both Houses of the Legislature support the proposition without regard to politics; that Governor Dunne, the last Democratic Governor, and Governor Lowden, the present Republican Governor, have both earnestly favored the Convention, and that the following organizations representing the "best public sentiment" in the State have given it their approval: The Illinois State Fair Association, which includes in its membership most of the leading lawyers of the State; the Municipal League; the Legislative Voters League of Illinois; the Chicago Real Estate Board; the Chicago Bureau of Public Efficiency; the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association; the Citizens Association of Chicago; the Chicago Political Equity League; the Chicago Association of Commerce; the Corn Growers and Stock Men's Organization, and many others. This indicates the trend of the best thought of the State upon the subject.

To enumerate all of the specific reasons for a Convention would be entirely beyond the time at my disposal; but I will mention a few of them. At the head of the list I put the revision of the State's taxation system. Governor Lowden referred to the present system of taxation as a "bitter farce," and said every one who has studied the question knows that it is. It attempts to tax all property upon the basis of equal valuation, regardless of class. This is all right in theory, but it has been found that it works gross injustice in practice. It has been in force since the organization of the State, when almost all property was tangible, such as houses, lands, etc., and could easily be reached for purposes of taxation. Now, a vast proportion of the wealth of the State consists of "intangible property" such as stocks, bonds and even mortgages which cannot be reached for taxation purposes. The result is that tangible property such as lands, houses and cattle, pays much more than its just proportion of taxes.

Probably at least two-thirds of the States have discontinued the rule repaving here, and by so doing they have decreased taxes upon real estate and other forms of tangible property and have obtained a much increased revenue from intangible property, of the classes I have mentioned. The present system places a premium on dishonesty and perjury, for in the great cities like Chicago there is little pretence that stocks and bonds are taxed at all. I could occupy all of my time with this subject, but must pass on.

Among other subjects which might be affected thru a Constitutional Convention I will mention a shorter ballot. At present the ballot even in a city the size of Jacksonville is difficult to understand; but at elections in the City of Chicago the ballot contains over 400 names. How many voters know anything about the vast majority of these names, or can vote intelligently with such a ballot before them? Perhaps I should have mentioned as second the necessary reorganization of the machinery by which justice is dispensed thru our courts. This is a vitally important question. At present many of our courts are far behind in their work, especially in Cook County, and therefore justice is denied. We need an entirely new system of Appellate Courts, in order that litigants may have prompt justice. The jury system needs amending, by which majority verdicts may be permitted in some cases. The Grand Jury system might well be improved, and changes are required in some of the lower courts.

A number of changes are required for the larger cities, and especially for Chicago. There are now a large number of separate taxing bodies in that city (11, I believe 21), which might be greatly reduced and the system of government unified, as has been done in cities of many other States. Such cities should have more control of their purely local affairs.

From a lawyer's point of view, perhaps the most crying need of a Constitution is that of obtaining a more elastic and workable system of amending the Constitution. Since 1870 there have been but seven amendments, most of which would not be considered very important to you, such as that of increasing the terms of County Officers, that forbidding contract labor, that authorizing Chicago to issue $5,000,000 in bonds for the World's Exposition, etc.

In my view one of the most important subjects to be treated is that of minority representation, which I think should be abolished. Since it's adoption, no party has been able to secure a two-thirds majority in the Legislature by which all constitutional measures are required to be passed. Moreover, on several occasions a small minority has held the balance of power between the two principal powers, and this has been the cause of much of the scandal and corruption which has at times prevailed in the Illinois Legislature. I have been there and have seen its baneful effects. It permits a few selfish men, frequently posing as reformers, to control the destinies of the Legislature, sometimes for a consideration.

And now I come to the last subject that I will mention, which many of you may think should have been first—that of Woman Suffrage. This is probably the only opportunity women will have in this State for a general election or two, to secure complete and equal suffrage. If they do not embrace the opportunity and do their share in securing the calling of a Constitutional Convention, the fault will be their own, and will lend force to the argument that women in fact do not care to vote. If they are earnest in this matter, they should see to it that several of their most respectable representatives are present at every polling place in this County at the November election, urging voters to vote for the Constitutional Convention.

The magnificent work which women have done in the great conflict in which we are now engaged, has converted many to the support of equal suffrage who have heretofore been either opposed to it or lukewarm in their support—such as President Wilson. Let them now show their interest by their works in favor of women's rights among their friends, and at the polls, in favor of a Constitutional Convention.

If a Constitutional Convention is called, it will doubtless avoid the mistake which was made in New York, of submitting a Constitution for acceptance or rejection as a whole; but will doubtless submit many of its provisions as separate propositions. In this way, the voters will be privileged to support those provisions which they favor and vote against those to which they are opposed. This seems to be the fairest method—that each proposition (at least those considered at all radical) should stand or fall upon its own merits.

And now a word upon the subject of the sixty million dollar bond issue for the construction of hard roads.

At the last session of the Legislature, an Act was passed submitting to the people the proposition of voting an issue of bonds to the amount of sixty million dollars for constructing hard roads throughout the State. It is provided that these roads shall reach to County seats and principal towns, and the general routes to be followed are pointed out; but many details are left to be worked out by the Department of Public Works and Buildings which will have general control of the work in case the bond issue receives a majority of all the votes cast at the general election on November 5th. The system embraces nearly five thousand miles of hard roads.

The proposition should be supported by every intelligent voter in the State. Every one understands the crying need for good roads in Illinois, which at present has probably more bad roads than any other State in the Union. These roads will benefit every community, every city, village and farm in the State. It is true that the farms situated immediately upon these hard roads will receive the greatest benefit; but all will be benefited.

The bond issue will not add one cent to the general taxation of any property owner. Therefore, it would seem that there should be no excuse for voting against it.

By a distinct Act, which will be in force whether the bond issue is voted up or down, automobile licenses in the State will have been doubled by 1920, and every automobile owner will have to pay his license fee whether he has hard roads to drive upon or not. A careful estimate, based upon the number of automobiles now licensed in this State, shows that these license fees will be considerably more than sufficient to pay both interest and principal of the bond issue within a period of 25 years, and the payment of the bonds will be spread over that period. Moreover, the number of automobiles and trucks is increased in this State to the extent which seems reasonable, based upon the number in such States as Iowa, the fees from automobile licenses will not only be sufficient to pay the bonds and interest, but in the course of 25 years will leave a balance of sixty five million dollars, which will be available for allotment to the work upon the dirt roads of the State under the present State aid road law. Even in 1920, it is estimated that there will be over two million dollars available for the dirt roads, and the amount so applicable will increase as the bonds are paid off and the interest charges decreased.

But even if there should be no funds available from the State Treasury to apply on our dirt roads, we would still be in a much better position to care for them than heretofore, for the reason that we would have a system of hard roads which will be maintained by the State from automobile license fees and the money raised by local taxation for road purposes can all be applied to highways unimproved by hard roads. Think what that would mean to Morgan County. The Hard Road Bond Act provides for a road crossing our County from East to West, passing from the eastern State line thru Danville, Urbana, Decatur, Springfield, and Jacksonville to Winchester, Pittsfield and Quincy; also for a road going south thru Carrollton, White Hall, etc., to St. Louis; also one reaching north to Virginia, Beardstown and other points beyond. How much easier, then, will it be to keep the remaining dirt roads in good condition.

As I have said before the automobile owners will have to pay their license fees regardless of whether they support the bond issue for hard roads; but any man who owns an automobile would certainly be a fit subject for a lunatic asylum if he votes against the bond issue; for after hard roads are constructed he could use his machine at all seasons of the year in going to many of the most important points. Moreover, he will much more than save the amount of his license fees in decreased wear and tear upon his tires and machine and also in decreased consumption of gasoline and oil. Hence, we ought to have the photo of any automobile owner who votes against this bond issue to exhibit as the champion fool of the County. But there is no danger of this proposition being lost thru negative votes. The only danger is that of indifference at the beginning, for as I said at the beginning, I now wish to emphasize, that every man who votes at the November election and fails to vote in favor of any of the propositions enumerated, in effect votes against the proposition for which they must each have a majority of all the votes cast at the election, or be defeated.

In case the bond issue carries, Governor Lowden has given deplorable assurances that he will not permit the issue of any bonds nor any work upon the hard road system until after the conclusion of the present war and the return of our citizen soldiers. This will render the work of construction much more economical and will give work to many of our soldier boys who might otherwise be out of employment during the period of readjustment and reconstruction which will inevitably follow so great a conflict.

Fans at the high school football game yesterday called constantly for Arthur Greene to enter the game. Greene has been engaged in government work and only recently returned to school. Principal Hopkins wired the authorities of the State High School Athletic association asking for a ruling on Greene. The telegram in reply said that he was eligible. This was followed by a letter which said that unless Greene was in the regular army, he was not eligible. If we could induce everyone who wanted a Phonograph to listen to The New Edison, no other kind would ever be sold!

The New Edison is so immeasurably superior to any other instrument that there's no room for argument. We believe that the only reason anyone ever buys any other kind is because they never happened to hear

THE New Edison

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

Other devices merely imitate, this wonderful instrument recreates. No human ear can detect a shade of distinction between an artist's living voice and a recreation of it on the New Edison.

This is a startling assertion but it has been proved more than 1500 times by the famous tone tests in which the artists sang in direct comparison with the instrument. More than 2,000,000 people have attended these tone tests; more than 1500 newspaper critics have reported them. And the verdict was unanimous: artist and instrument were indistinguishable.

Call at our store and satisfy yourself about the New Edison. Edison Records should not be played and cannot be played properly on any other instrument. If they could be, the manufacturers who seek to profit by Mr. Edison's research work would be able to make tone test comparisons, such as we have made with the New Edison before two million music lovers.

MR. FARMER

You are about to read the most wonderful news ever given to the hog raisers of Morgan and surrounding counties—the claims made for

"Sucrene" Hog Meal

Already being fed by more than one hundred of our most successful hog raisers—WHY?

Because it means dollars in their pockets. Experience has taught them that unless they have something which will get the hog in condition, it cannot do its best on soft corn.

You will find "SUCRENE" HOG MEAL will pay any one to feed, regardless of other feeds.

"SUCRENE" HOG MEAL is a concentrated food product prepared especially for swine, which combines certain organic and inorganic elements and minerals essential to healthy animal growth. The names of the ingredients are printed on every sack.

"SUCRENE" HOG MEAL is a complete ration; no corn or tankage needed. It puts the system in a good general condition—in other words, we put the hog's constitution along the line of the strongest resistance, and when he is fed on "SUCRENE" HOG MEAL for thirty days it not only absolutely prevents many of the life-debilitating diseases common among hogs but it will help prevent any disease because hogs are kept in better condition.

MR. FARMER—Two hundred pounds of high quality pork, in six months from farrowing time, should be the record of the average hog. DO YOU DO IT? If not, feed him "SUCRENE", and you WILL DO IT. "SUCRENE" HOG MEAL will make a SIX HUNDRED POUND GAIN to the ton. Hogs grow faster because of the great variety of grain and other nutrients it contains, makes larger frame and forces rapid and full development.

The door to success you must make yourself, and how good it is depends entirely on the maker.

Be conservative and always stop to think. Plunging and lunging into purchasing goods, one the spur of the moment, isn't safe.

He wins who honestly tries.

DAVID WILSON DIED THIS MORNING

County Commissioner Expired at Home at 1:40 O'clock, This (Sunday) Morning.

David Wilson, county commissioner, and one of the best known citizens of the county, died at his home, 334 West North street at 1:40 o'clock this (Sunday) morning.

Mr. Wilson had been in failing health for several months being a sufferer from heart trouble and this was the cause of death. He was seized suddenly, and Dr. J. W. Hairgrove was summoned but Mr. Wilson was dead when he arrived.

David Wilson was about 55 years of age, and had been a resident of Morgan county for many years, following the occupation of farming near Nortonville.

He was elected county commissioner in 1914 and re-elected in 1917, being a member of the board at the time of death. He gave his undivided attention to the office and was accounted one of the best officials the county ever had.

Some months ago Mr. Wilson's health began to fail and he purchased a residence, and removed to the city where his son took charge of the farm.

One peculiarly sad thing about his death, is the fact that Mrs. Wilson, a few days ago suffered a fracture of her left arm and is now a patient at Our Savior's hospital and grave fears are entertained that she will lose her arm. She lost her right arm some months ago.

Mr. Wilson was about the city Saturday and in company with Commissioner Roegge, attended to some county business. He at that time made arrangements to go to Meredosia on Tuesday and inspect some drainage work in that vicinity.

Besides his widow Mrs. Wilson is survived by two daughters and one son. He was a member of the Odd Fellows and of Youngblood church. He was a man of splendid characteristics and one who was highly regarded in the county. His death will be received with sorrow by a large circle of friends. At this time arrangements have not been made for the funeral.

A PATRIOTIC APPEAL TO WOMEN

The chairman of the National Woman's Liberty Loan committee has transmitted to the women of Morgan county thru Mrs. Charles A. Barnes as chairman, a personal appeal to come to the aid of the government at this time. It is true that there is a lot of peace talk but this fact should not for a moment be allowed to interfere with the Liberty Loan activity.

Every woman should read with patriotic interest Mrs. McAdoo's telegram and then act in accordance with it. The telegram reads as follows: Mrs. C. A. Barnes, Jacksonville, Ill. The president has called on the nation to oversubscribe the Liberty Loan. This imperative measure toward certain and complete victory. National Woman's Liberty Loan Committee, appreciating all you have already done, calls upon you to take that message home to your community. Oversubscription of quota in your district must be personal responsibility of every Liberty Loan worker.

Mrs. Wm. G. McAdoo, Chairman National Woman's Liberty Loan Committee

The Actual Cost of this War Can Never be Computed

—But we know this much, that it costs one million dollars a meal to feed the American soldiers and sailors now under arms. What will it mean to feed them next year when the new army gets into line?

—America's daily expenditure right now is fifty million dollars a day—over eighteen billion a year—next year it will be more.

—This tremendous expenditure is necessary if we are to win this war and make what we have safe and valuable.

WILL FINISH BOND CAMPAIGN THIS WEEK

FIGURES SHOW BALANCE DUE FROM EACH DISTRICT.

Personal Solicitation Will be Made All Over the County—Quotas Must be Met.

H. M. Capps, Liberty Loan campaign manager, and Charles Fiedler, director of sales, Saturday sent to each precinct chairman and to school directors throughout the county a complete list showing the quotas of the various schools districts and the amount subscribed in each district. By a perusal of these figures the officials and members of the committee will see at a glance just the work that is before them. They will also have the facts to show what other districts are doing.

Subscription Figures Ready.

This is the final week of the campaign and it remains for the people in Morgan county to subscribe for about $450,000 in bonds in order to complete the county quota of $1,746,000. After a great painstaking work Chairman Capps has sufficient records to show the names of all subscribers according to school districts, the amounts subscribed and the shortage of the allotment. In addition to the subscription figures the members of the committee throughout the county will tomorrow receive in the mail a record of the subscriptions made in their districts, a copy of the tax list with the names of persons who have not subscribed. It will then be the business of the members of the committee in these various school districts to make an active personal house to house campaign and secure the amount necessary to complete the district quota.

Individual Solicitation.

Persons who have not subscribed and who are able to subscribe will be called upon promptly, so that the reports may be transmitted to the campaign headquarters with the end in view of cleaning up the whole matter before the end of the week. Mr. Fiedler will meet the Jacksonville committee and solicitors Monday night for apportionment of names and territory. In Jacksonville school district, that is 117, the quota is $468,000 and the amount of subscription up to Saturday night $420,250. It is expected that the remaining sum to complete the Jacksonville school district quota can be secured in a few hours' time after the solicitation campaign has been definitely outlined. The school district quotas and the amounts subscribed are indicated in the following list:

ILLINOIS WILL HAVE FOOTBALL

Lieutenant Hardwick Notified Coach Harmon Saturday Afternoon—First Practice Held.

There was great rejoicing on the "Hill" Saturday afternoon when Lieutenant Hardwick, resident officer, notified Coach Harmon that Illinois would have a football team.

Since the opening of school football has been "up in the air" figuratively speaking, at Illinois college. Last year a tentative schedule was made with the teams that Illinois has played for a number of years past. However with the introduction of military training things had to be adjusted and it looked like this would eliminate football.

Saturday after the high school game Lieutenant Hardwick told Coach Harmon that Illinois would have a team, and lined up the men and asked all who wanted to play to step forward. About sixty men, the largest squad in the history of the school, came forward.

Coach Harmon asked when it would be convenient to hold the first practice. Some of the men said "instantly," and shed their coats, and Harmon put them thru the paces for some time.

Arrangements will be made whereby Coach Harmon will have time to work his squad beginning at 5:20 o'clock. This will be satisfactory, because of the fact that all of the men are living on the campus.

There is some fine material on the hill this year, and Coach Harmon, tho, getting a late start, expects to have a squad that will give a good account of itself. He will begin at once to whip a team into shape and a schedule will be made immediately. It is probable that games will be booked with a number of Little Nineteen teams and maybe from some of the training camps.

Not so many games can be played away from home under present conditions. During the month of November, but two games can be played on foreign fields. However, it is probable that the season will last longer than the regular college schedule and local football enthusiasts may see football games in December.

VIRDEN DEFEATED JACKSONVILLE HIGH

Visitors Win Thru Ability to Penetrate Local's Line—Locals Played Good in Spots but Work was Not Consistent.

Thru ability to penetrate the defense of Jacksonville high, Virden high was returned the winner on Illinois field Saturday afternoon by a score of 12 to 7.

Neither team displayed much in attack most of the gains being made on line plunges and end runs. Both team tried a number of forward passes but none of them resulted in gains and for the most part they were broken up by the defense.

Virden had better team work than Jacksonville and their back field was heavy and fast and also experienced. The men were able to sift thru the local forwards and frequently made long gains after chances had been given to tackle the man carrying the ball.

Curvin, Strahan and Hobson alternated in carrying the ball and all of them were able to make gains, and also starred for Virden on both offense and defense.

For Jacksonville, Rexroat, Gunn and Carlson did the best offensive work, while Cockin, Smith, Gunn, Ransdell and Rexroat did fine work on the defense. There was considerable enthusiasm displayed at the game but not by high school students. So far as rooting was concerned by students one would have thought one was in a cemetery because of the stillness.

The rooting was done by the students of the S. A. T. C. and there was much rivalry between two groups, one rooting for Jacksonville and one for Virden. However, we must say that some of the language used by the rooters was such as would disgrace a stock yards gathering or a meeting on the St. Louis river front. These young men used profanity and vulgarity that was the veriest billingsgate and does not speak well for discipline by those in charge of the men. It is to be hoped that at future games there will be no more such exhibitions.

Story of the Game.

Jacksonville kicked off to Virden and the ball was returned fifteen yards before being downed. As in the Springfield game Virden appeared to get the jump on the locals and scored a touchdown before they got organized thus giving them the edge.

Virden by a series of line plays and end runs made first down twice and Jacksonville braced and held. Jacksonville was unable to advance and kicked. Virden secured the ball and soon worked into the shadow of the goal and pushed it over. Goal was missed. Score: Virden, 6; Jacksonville, 0. No more scoring done during the first period, the score ending 6 to 0 in favor of the visitors.

At the beginning of the second period Jacksonville came to and played some real football. Hitting the line and running the ends with a lot of "pep" Jacksonville worked the ball down the field and soon pushed Carlson over for a touchdown and kicked goal. Score, Virden 6; Jacksonville, 7.

Virden took the lead within a few minutes, however. Jacksonville kicked off and Virden started a series of line plays and end runs and soon worked the ball down the field for another touchdown but failed to kick goal. Score, Virden 12; Jacksonville, 7.

During the remainder of this period and in the third and fourth periods both teams had possession of the ball many times. Neither seemed to have the punch to put it over and game ended with the score 12 to 7 in favor of Virden.

HOGS FROM GREGORY FARM ARE WINNERS

Made Many Winnings at Cedar Rapids, Iowa—City Council Passes Appropriation Ordinance—White Hall News Notes.

White Hall, October 11.—Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dillman left this week for Sacramento, California, where they will remain pending the choice of a location for an indefinite sojourn, having disposed of their home here with the view of remaining two or three years in the golden state if the climate proves beneficial. They were accompanied by Misses Mae Higbee and Nita Jones, the latter of Jacksonville.

Miss Nellie Painter, stenographer for Congressman Rainey, has been making daily trips to Carrollton since her return from Washington a week ago, to look after some of the congressman's correspondence. Mr. Rainey may be able to get home in two or three weeks.

The Gregory Farm herd of Berkshire hogs arrived from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Wednesday, where they were shown at the National Swine Show with the usual Gregory Farm success, the winnings including first on aged boar; first, fourth and fifth on junior yearling boars; first and second on junior yearling sows; first, second, third and fourth on senior sow pigs; first, second, third and fifth on get of sire; first, second and fifth on produce of dam; first on aged herd; first, third and seventh on young herd, and first on senior and grand champion boar.

City Council Met.

The October meeting of the city council was held Tuesday, and an amendment to the annual appropriation ordinance was passed, providing for the sum of $6,000 for an extension to Whiteside Park. The park commissioners are working very industriously to secure all the ground and improvements possible before the soldier boys come marching home, for every bit of space possible and every consideration possible will be tendered them, and the addition to Whiteside Park is looked upon as the only appropriate place for such a gathering as will receive the returning soldier boys from the great world war within possibly the next six months. This is the greatest incentive for pushing the improvements on the part of the donors. Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Griswold, and they have the support of the city and park officials in bringing matters to the earliest possible conclusion. Mr. and Mrs. Griswold have wished for these improvements to proceed for the past two years or more, and they will not be content until a handsome public library and rest room is erected, with provision for caring for relics of the war that our boys may bring home for the local public to gaze upon for the years to come, and for such other relics and mementoes that have a valuable local and general history that are now kept from public for the want of facilities of displaying them in a secure and appropriate way. Therefore, the erection of a public library on Whiteside Park has great possibilities and significance that may yet be realized.

Rex Campbell came in last week from a tour of fairs in Illinois and Missouri with a string of trotters and pacers. His leaders are the pacers Eva Tango and Alice Dean, and since the first of July, when he began the circuit, he started in thirty races, and was only eight times out of the money. Eva Tango started fifteen times, and was first once, second five times, third once, fourth three times, and made a best record of 2:13, pacing a mile in 2:07 on a mile track. Alice Dean started five times, and was first once, second once, third once, fourth once, and made a race record of 2:12 on a half mile track, pacing a mile in 2:08 on a mile track. Mr. Campbell has done valuable work as a trainer on the White Hall track, but there is a possibility of his going to Muncie, Indiana, to become permanently identified with Silver Brook farm in charge of the live stock department, a feature of which is Short-horn cattle and Poland China hogs.

Medical Society in Session.

The Greene County Medical society held a special meeting in White Hall this week, the sessions being held in the city hall, with a noon spread by the ladies of the Methodist church. The meeting was of a patriotic character, and the encroaching influenza epidemic was given consideration. All the local physicians were present except Dr. L. O. Frech, who was an influenza victim. The out-of-town visitors included Drs. Lewis of Hillview, Cobble, Cravens and Bulger of Greenfield. The doctors were quoted as favoring measures to combat the spread of Spanish influenza by closing the schools and disbanding gatherings of a public nature, and on Thursday the local board of health took measures accordingly, a proclama-

OWNERS OF HORSE VEHICLES SHOULD NOT PAY FOR GOOD ROADS BONDS

Reasons Why Automobilists Stand All Cost of $60,000,000 Bond Issue.

"We all admit without question that every citizen regardless of age or occupation, regardless of whether he uses the country road or not, receives a certain benefit from road improvement," says W. G. Edens, president of the Illinois Highway association, in an interview. "In some cases the benefit is indirect, but it is there nevertheless. But we must also admit by far the greatest benefit accrues to the user of the roads. This is a direct benefit and comes to him in saving of time, of motor power—of equipment and its upkeep—and this applies whether he is using a lumber wagon, a buggy, a passenger car, a motortruck or a motorcycle."

"Some persons say that if all users of the road receive such a large part of the benefit then all including the users of horse-drawn vehicles, should be taxed for this improvement. Suppose we admit that this argument is sound. Do we realize the rapidity with which we are turning to motor-driven vehicles? A traffic census taken in 1918 by the Iowa State college and state highway commission at 57 stations in 17 counties showed that 86 per cent of the total traffic was motor driven and that the trucks carrying farm products were greater in number than the wagons used for that purpose. These same conditions may not apply exactly to Illinois at this time but they soon will. The horse-drawn vehicle is being so rapidly supplanted on our highways that it is impractical to consider it as a source of revenue for road improvement."

"I wish to call attention to the saving that will come to the motor car and truck owners thru the improvement of our roads, namely, the saving in gasoline, in tires, in repairs in the increased life of the vehicle. If we are able to secure for Illinois a system of 365 day roads the yearly saving on each and every one of the above four items will more than pay your annual license fee to the State of Illinois, which all goes to the improvement of our highways.

"I therefore say there is no injustice to the motor car owner in using the license fees which he pays to the building of this system of roads, but a rather great advantage and saving to him. Hence he should welcome and encourage this method of expenditure of the automobile license fees and give the bond issue his hearty support."

THE PATRIOTIC SERVICE LEAGUE.

The patriotic service league has now been fully launched in our city and a few words regarding it are in order. It is the product of much hard work, self denial and valuable effort on the part of those promoting it and its objects are worthy of consideration.

It has three objects primarily. First and foremost, like all patriotic organizations, the prime object is to win the war. Next is the acquiring of useful knowledge and physical improvement of the members. This is a matter well worthy of consideration. Many of the members are occupied in sedentary employment and need the exercise they get in the folk dances, military drill and the like and while the military officers are perfect gentlemen, treating the young ladies with all consideration, still they are business also and do things in military style with no soft pedal work in the whole business so that all who take these two departments get very valuable results.

In addition to all these is the social features. Young people are naturally desirous of a little variety in life. Of course it would be wonderfully fine if our girls and boys were willing to go decorously home from school or occupation and sit meekly at home reading and wisely occupied in other ways but that is not human nature. They need and are entitled to recreation and the great desideratum is to have it wholesome and beneficial. We have but little in Jacksonville in that line, especially for the girls. Thousands upon thousands have been spent on the Y. M. C. A. and other enterprises for the boys and its all right but what about the girls? They are surely entitled to some consideration. The patriotic service league supplies the want in a wise and sane manner. It should be encouraged by every possible means.

The board of education is hampered by lack of means and must ask cost when the David Prince building is used. The attitude of the board is kindly but it has not the ability to do generous things in this manner.

Perhaps when the millennium dawns the men of wealth in our community will see their duty to the public and find their pleasure in aiding such enterprises as this. What a fine thing it would be if we had a hall with suitable apartments for such purposes as this. Wouldn't it be a better monument to some wealthy person than a large estate left to those who possibly don't especially appreciate it? But it is no use to discuss this question. It is too much like perpetual motion and convincing a mother that her baby isn't good looking, so meanwhile let us encourage the girls all we can.

Just now a very good matter is being considered by the heads of the enterprise. In case of an epidemic of influenza they are asking for volunteers among the girls to carry supplies to families unable to get help otherwise and while we hope this will not be needed it shows the animus of the organization.

As a precautionary measure meetings have been called off this week.

THERE IS THE SPIRIT AND CHARM OF YOUTH IN THE NEW COATS, SUITS AND DRESSES WE ARE NOW SHOWING OF CHOICEST MATERIALS AND CORRECTLY TAILORED. WE MAKE A SPECIAL SHOWING OF BIG VALUES AT $25.00, $35.00 AND $45.00.

EAT

More Vegetables Instead of More Cereals and Meat, More Fruit Instead of More Sugar.

This to a certain extent is something which the American people should try to do this year in their efforts to save the extra amounts of cereals, meat and sugar which must be sent to the Allies.

As with any short statement, however, it is difficult to tell the whole truth in a few words. Vegetables and fruit alone would not be an ideal diet for a man, even if he were given all the fat he needed.

Milk and some cereals should be added. Meat is not necessary, but since we can have some of the lighter weight beef and some pork, as well as normal amounts of mutton and lamb, it is well to eat a little because most people enjoy its flavor so very much. On the other hand, a little of it can well "go a long way."

The point is this: Ordinary fruits and vegetables form about one tenth of our food, figuring on the "calorie" basis. They can supply about one third without the least danger of our health.

For example, the following list of foods—a good day's ration for three men or four women—has a fuel value of 10,000 calories and 3,000 calories are furnished by fruits and vegetables:

Cereals of various kinds (wheat flour, corn flour, corn meal, etc.) 1½ Pounds.
Beef of average composition. —3 Pounds.
Milk—2 Quarts.
Cottage cheese—½ pound.
Potatoes—3 pounds.
Shelled green peas or beans—1½ pounds.

Other vegetables, including those served cooked and those used raw as salad—2 pounds.
Fruits (the equivalent of six quarts of strawberries, 12 large oranges, or 16 apples)—six pounds.

Fat (butter, butter substitute lard, oil, and other fats)—1 cup —½ pound.
Sugar, 1-3 to ½ cup.
(Depending on whether 3 or 4 persons are to be served)
Onions 2-3 to 4.
Syrup, ½ to 1 cup—Ounces 6 to 12.

To Save Cereals.
One cereal food at one meal is enough.

If the dessert requires flour or cereal, perhaps vegetables can take the place of bread. The amount of Victory bread served should be limited.

Don't serve too much as a garnish. Left-over muffin can be toasted and used.

Cut the bread at the table as needed—a thin slice at a time. Always use stale bread, but count it as and reduce elsewhere.

GREAT 2-DAYS CASH SALE

Saturday, Oct. 12 and Monday, Oct. 14

20 Doz. 81x90 Sheets, $2.50 Quality, for $1.50 Each

These sheets are far from perfect quality. Some of the sheets are badly wrinkled; on others the hemming is poorly done; still others are spotted and stained.

Some of the sheets have tears in them and tiny holes caused by being run through new machinery. The tears can be mended and the holes darned. We want you to know exactly what you are buying, but we wish to assure you that we consider this an exceptional offering just the same and goods that you will buy readily. We are confident you will be pleased if you buy them. This lot of sheets should have been in our Anniversary Sale, but were laid out on account of railroad shipping conditions.

SPANISH INFLUENZA

This Disease is LaGrippe and is the Same That Swept the World in 1889 and 1891.

Most of the cases are ushered in like a bad cold, with headache, pains all over the body, chill, reddened eyes, dizziness, occasionally vomiting and the most noticeable feature is the depression and the marked prostration.

The disease is conveyed by the secretions of the nose and mouth, and those who are careless in coughing and sneezing, can convey it to any one they come in contact with.

Rules for Its Prevention

And Which it is Urged That You Follow:

If you are taken sick suddenly, do not wait for severe symptoms, but call a physician immediately, as the disease may become serious in a short space of time.

Keep away from those who have had colds.

Cover your mouth and nose when you cough or sneeze, as coughing or sneezing, except behind a handkerchief, is a great sanitary offense.

Keep your living room well ventilated.

Keep the room where you work full of fresh air.

Keep the children who have a bad cold away from school or public gatherings.

Spend all the time you can out of doors.

Keep your body in a healthy condition.

Do not neglect what you call a bad cold.

Keep your home and premises clean and see that the streets and alleys in your neighborhood are in a sanitary condition.

If reasonable care is exercised, and an endeavor made to keep mentally calm at this time, there is no reason to expect a serious spread of the trouble.

By Order of the Health Dept.

HENRY J. RODGERS, Mayor.

DR. ALLEN M. KING, City Health Physician.

One hundred and fifty women have qualified as inspectors of army canteens by taking the course of instruction provided by the London county council.

During the Tse-Ping rebellion in China, which broke out in the year 1850, women were as active as the men in the performance of all military duties.

☐ This probably is the first time in the history of Morgan County that a local tailoring establishment has advertised to make soldier's uniforms.

☐ We would toss our hats in the air, and yell like joyous school boys, if the necessity for this sort of work were at this moment wiped forever from the face of the earth, and peace and good will brooded over all peoples.

☐ But war's stern realities still are present. Our boys are going—they must be properly outfitted. Their uniforms, dress and service, and according to government specifications, can be made here at home.

☐ Shops in the larger centers are over-worked. And other things being equal, as they are, why not drop in here and leave your measure?

☐ We guarantee personal satisfaction, and also that your uniforms will pass every inspection.

WAS NEAR THE BIG EXPLOSION

Robert Capps Writes Interesting Letter to Parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Capps.

Robert Capps, who is at Raritan Arsenal, has written his father an interesting letter about the big explosion which took place across the river from him recently. The Journal is permitted to publish some extracts from the letter:

Raritan Arsenal,
Oct. 6, 1918.

Mr. Alfred T. Capps,
Jacksonville, Ill.,
Dear Dad—

The big blow-up across the river yesterday has furnished us plenty to talk about since Friday night.

You probably know more about it than I do, as I haven't been able to get a paper today to find out what the latest reports are.

When the first explosion hit, I was in the Y. M. C. A. hut when the first explosion hit. I knew something was happening. We are perhaps six or eight miles from Morgan, across the river and above it, so that we could look right out of our barracks windows and see the flames of the plant and of course, we were a good deal shaken up by the heavy explosions when the Filling-Buildings went up.

As I said, the first of these occurred about 7:30 and then at about half hour intervals, there were others until midnight when the concussion of separate shells merged into a roar or perhaps "rubble" broken by the great reports when a vat of T. N. T. would be detonated, or a Filling-Building would decide to get out of the way all at one time.

Except for a lucky chance, this camp would have suffered pretty heavily. The shocks of the Filling-Buildings were very great they would have been as nothing to what would have happened if the big magazines had caught. This explosion was scheduled for yesterday afternoon between one and two o'clock, but the wind shifted and "saved the beans." These magazines contained over thirty-five tons of T. N. T., which is about one-third of what the magazine here at the arsenal contained. If ours had gone—Pittsburg would be a Seaport.

However, T. N. T. like most high explosives is hard to detonate, so it may be set off by the vibration of a fiddle string. It is rather temperamental. You would never think, to see them pack shells, that the stuff was dangerous. They pour it into the shell case and then tamp it with a section of two inch steel shafting and a sledge hammer. Of course, it has to be that way in order to hold together thru the force of explosion from the gun and also thru the shock of striking the target, until set off by the fulminate detonator.

One Lieut. John Baxter, being the son of a wealthy New England family, and one time back private in the ordnance machine gun school, hired a car yesterday to run up into New York State to see his fiancée. He invited Lieut. Culbertson and me to go along, which invitation we accepted. We left at noon yesterday taking the road thru Perth Amboy to Newark. Perth Amboy was almost abandoned because of its partial wreckage from the shocks and because of the warning of the heavy explosions anticipated. The roads from Perth Amboy to Elizabeth and Newark were crowded with refugees, fleeing from the threatened district, and with the Red Cross, Woman's Auxiliary, Reserve Corps, Home Guards, etc. hurrying down into Perth Amboy and South Amboy.

The condition of many of the refugees was pitiful. They were mostly foreigners and seemed sort of numbed by their experiences or by fright. Many had left without proper wraps for the crisp weather. Everyone had been ordered to keep out of houses and had been outside since midnight Friday night.

We had a fine trip in to Mahwah N. J., just south of Suffern, N. Y. Culbertson and I left Baxter here and had dinner in Pateron, N. J., arriving about midnight. Suffern is only about ten miles from West Point, up in the Dutch Regions of Sleepy Hollow Tales. The Dutch influence is very marked everywhere names, architecture and all.

The copy of the Rambler came. Did Charles send it? With best love to everyone, ROB.

TRACTOR DEMONSTRATION

Tuesday, Oct. 15th, Howard Zahn invites everybody to an all day tractor plowing demonstration to be held on the Ed Smith farm a mile northwest of Jacksonville. The Titan 10-20 horse power kerosene tractor will be demonstrated; guaranteed to operate on kerosene or distillate down to 39 degrees. Baume saves 40 to 50 per cent fuel over gasoline, cheaper than horse power. Turns in a 28 foot circle. Will do any kind of work.

MAVERICKS

The maximum price of shoes is to be fixed at $6 per foot—$12 per pair, that is. This ought to make your feet glad, if it does make your pocket-book sick.

Some people are just naturally lucky anyway. There's Frank Jones, for instance—he can make a pair of shoes go twice as far as anybody else.

Now is the time when the folks who have Christmas savings accounts are congratulating themselves—if they began at the big end. But Hoover help them, if they began at the little end.

The meanest man in town has already been celebrated in story, so it is up to do it in song. Here goes:

The Meanest Man.
The meanest man we ever saw
Was one who took (with a great hurrah)
A Liberty Bond of the series one,
But cashed it in, and got the mon.

And bought another in series two Because its higher interest drew.

And when the Saving Stamps appeared
Again cashed in, because he feared.

He'd lose a fraction of per cent
Upon the money he had lent.

The Stamps in turn he traded in,
Got ready again to put the tin
In a Liberty Bond of the series four—
If you can beat it, just take the floor.

At the rate of 5,000 or so a day,
That will so some pen of Turkeys that General Allenby will have laid up against Thanksgiving.

Those who looked forward to the date of setting the clocks back so that they could have an hour longer for the evening frolic, are now looking forward to the other change, so they can have an hour's more sleep in the morning.

Somebody suggested that the surrender of Bulgaria left the back door of the Central Powers wide open. We also observe that they are retiring off their front porch, which was Belgium.

Now that the leaves have begun to fall, we are in for a siege of being gassed by the festive bonfire.

The big red spot that you see ahead of you mornings when you come down town on the car from any of the four cardinal directions, that's good, isn't it?
—points of the compass, is not a bonfire, or an increase in brilliancy on the part of the dog-star Sirius. No, it is only the Salvia bed in Central Park, blushing with seasonal enthusiasm.
Seems too bad to think of putting a cold pile of concrete in its place doesn't it?

These glassless, beautiful Sundays ought to be a great thing for the churches and Sunday schools.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

Mr. Albert C. Metcalf, Registrar of the college, and Mrs. Metcalf, arrived in Jacksonville Friday evening after five days visit in Chicago.

The Friday chapel hour was given over to a Patriotic Sing under the direction of Mrs. Florence Pierson Hartmann with Miss Edith M. Robinson at the piano.

Thursday at the luncheon hour Mr. Lenox, with the French Commission now touring America, briefly addressed the college on the experiences of his 49 months in the trenches. Mr. Lenox was the champion tennis player of France in 1909. He wears three chevrons for wounds received in battle. Four months of his military experience was in connection with the 89th American Division, which contains a large number of young men from the central west.

Miss Louise Gates delivered an address at the Saturday Chapel. Miss Gates based her remarks upon experiences in connection with her social work in Allentown, Pa.

The voluntary quarantine announced at dinner Thursday night has been accepted by both faculty and students with fine grace. The general health of the college is in first class condition, which makes even a temporary separation from outside activities easy to bear. Church services will be held in the Social Room at 10:30 Sunday morning with President Harker and Vice-President Nymman in charge.

Mr. Edward Wackerle, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds, received a telegram from Florida Friday afternoon announcing the death of his brother, Bert Wackerle. The decedent is survived by his wife and three brothers.

Founders Day will be observed Friday, October 18th with patriotic services commencing at 10:00 o'clock. The addresses will be delivered by the Rev. F. B. Madden and the Rev. W. R. Leslie. Some of the present day popular military songs will be blended with old time favorites in the College Sing.

FRENCH OFFICER VISITOR IN CITY

Lieut. Lennox Has Great War Record—Until Recently Attached to American Army in France.

Lieut. T. C. Lennox of the French army has ended a visit in Jacksonville. While here he called at the Illinois Woman's College and paid his respects to President Harker. Vice President Nymman and subsequently made a brief talk to the young women at the luncheon hour. Lieut. Lennox came to Chicago recently with a French war mission. However, his coming to the United States at this time was particularly for the purpose of aiding in the Liberty Loan. A number of Jacksonville people met him and found him exceedingly affable and with a very interesting fund of war time information.

Lieut. Lennox comes from a well known French family. He is a university man and a few years prior to the beginning of the war was the champion tennis player of France. He enlisted for the war in the early stages and the chevrons of the left sleeve indicate a service extending thru more than three and a half years. On the right sleeve of his uniform he wears three chevrons, indicating the number of battles in which he has been wounded. Lieut. Lennox was decorated by the French government for bravery shown in the battle of the Somme in October, 1914. In a gun and bayonet struggle he was credited with killing twenty Germans, and received seven wounds himself. In an engagement in Belgium in June, 1915, he received a severe wound in the head.

During recent months he has been attached to General Pershing's army as an interpreter, and is an enthusiastic admirer of the U. S. chief and of the soldiers of this country. He has been attached to Col. Mitchell's division of the army.
